

Mrs. Lula R. Jones, kindergarten teacher at Howard Kennedy School for seventeen years, retired last week from the Omaha Public School System. She will be greatly missed by all of her former pupils, their parents and her co-workers.

On Thursday, June 9th, all the 302 children in the school who had been her pupils gathered in the auditorium to have their picture taken with her. Many parents sent gifts to her to show their appreciation for her work with their children. A purse of fifty new one dollar bills was presented to her which was a gift from other parents. Mrs. Jones said that in all her years of work she had never had one harsh word or any trouble with parents, teachers, or pupils. It is wonderful to be able to say that when one retires. Mrs. Jones will remain in Omaha among her friends.
