

Series of Stories for World-Herald Children - Omaha World-Herald (published as Sunday World-Herald) - April 27, 1902 - page 20

April 27, 1902 | Omaha World-Herald (published as Sunday World-Herald) | Omaha, Nebraska | News Article |
Volume XXXVII | Issue 209 | Page 20

Was Short a Carfare.

Omaha—Dear Rex M.: I have been reading the stories for the children and think they are very nice. I am 13 years old and go to the Omaha View school. Once when the Sunday school had a picnic I was invited to bring my fare and something to eat. Just as we started to eat a storm arose and it rained very hard, and children began to cry and ran everywhere. We got a car and went half way home. When the conductor came for my fare I had none because the superintendent had asked us to bring it to him. The car man said I will have to put you off. Only for a kind man I would have had to walk home from South Omaha. He let it go that time. I never have been to a Sunday school since.

John Brown, of Mascot, Neb.

GRACE CULVER, 2968 Lake Street.

CITATION (APA STYLE)

Series of Stories for World-Herald Children. (1902, April 27). Omaha World-Herald, XXXVII (209), p. 20. Available from NewsBank: America's News – Historical and Current: <https://infoweb.newsbank.com/apps/news/document-view?p=AMNEWS&docref=image/v2:1106B5BBD4B623A8@EANX-NB-111880611A39DE00@2415867-111880661DB12E58@19-111880729F309E80@Series+of+Stories+for+World-Herald+Children>.