
New School.

Omaha.--Dear Uncle Ross: As I have a little time to spare I thought I would write to you. I had a good time Christmas, and I was so anxious for morning to come that I forgot to hang up my stocking. Say, Uncle Ross, did you hang up your stocking? Even if I did Santa was good to me and brought me lots of presents. We had a big Christmas tree and a few of my cousins were here. The gift I like best is my Simple typewriter. I can print anything on it. Sometimes papa has something he wants printed real quick and he cannot do it and neither can his stenographers because they are so busy. So he lets me do it. My grandma sent me a necktie and a handkerchief for Christmas. I got a violin just before Christmas, so I guess you can call it a Christmas present, too. I have taken just a few lessons on it. I am learning to play a piece, and papa can play the piano. My music teacher's name is Miss Pates, and I like her very much. I take two lessons a week--on Wednesdays and Saturdays. We go to Omaha View school, and my teacher's name is Miss Cooper. She is very nice, only when she gets cross she is not nice. I guess you have heard about the new Omaha View school, so I will not write much about it, only it is going to be a beauty. I wish they would change the name, but my teacher said they would not. We will go to the new school January 31. Well, my letter is so long I am afraid it will crowd the rest out, so I will close. Your reader,

PERRY BORCHERTING.
