

OMAHA'S NEWEST SCHOOL OPENED MONDAY.

New Omaha View School.

Omaha's newest and most modern school building is the new Omaha View school at Thirtieth and Binney streets. It has sixteen grade class rooms, and rooms and facilities for manual training and domestic science departments. The building was occupied for the first time Monday morning at the beginning of the second half-year of school, and this permits the abandonment of the dangerous and dilapidated old Omaha View school at Thirty-second and Corby streets.
