
Lost His Job.

Omaha.—Dear Uncle Ross: As I have the mumps and can't go to school, I thought I'd write again and try the riddle. I was sorry to have to stay out of school. I was "water monitor" and will now lose my job. I think I told you before that I go to the Howard Kennedy school. I like my teacher very much. Her name is Miss Bonerson. It has been raining and everything looks fine. I will now try the riddle. What's the difference between a bello and a burglar? I think that a bello rings the door-bell and the burglar never does. Hoping I may win a prize, I am,

RONALD HADLEY.
