

A Fine Visit.

Omaha.—Dear Uncle Ross: I have written to you and won a prize. I thank you very much for it. I will answer the riddle first. Why is a butcher's cart like his stockings. Because they both carry meat. Am I right? Now, I will try and tell you when I was on my vacation.

It was out in Arlington. I had a very good time, especially when riding ponies. At noon I peeled potatoes and helped make dinner and done dishes. At about 4 o'clock I fed the chickens. We had lots of fun riding horseback and in the pony cart. I didn't want to go home, but had to on account of school. I go to Howard Kennedy school and am in the seventh A. I am 12 years old. My teacher's name is Miss Shorrock. This is the fourth time I've had her as my teacher. Well, I will close as it is bedtime. Yours very truly.

CARRIE PETERSEN.
