

Omaha School Room and Campus Gossip

Students who received conditional grades last year at Nebraska University College of Medicine, must appear before instructors in the several departments September 15, for supplemental examinations if they do not wish to be considered failures in their respective subjects according to a bulletin issued at the school. In event they do not, they will be required to re-register for the same work this year.

With accommodations for 580 children and 617 youngsters to be taken care of, Principal Franc Eaton of Howard Kennedy school is holding two sessions of kindergarten, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, and the teachers' rest room has been given over to classes. Also there is one class which is meeting in the hall. While Franklin school is getting a new addition and Bancroft has been voted additional space, nothing has as yet been done to alleviate the situation at the Howard Kennedy school.

Prof. P. G. Holden, known as the "Corn King" of America, who is conducting a series of lectures for farmers at the plant of the International Harvester company of this city, was the speaker at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon at Commerce High school, for the benefit of the commercial geography class.
