

It Did Not.

Omaha—Dear Uncle Ross: I read the Children's page every Sunday and enjoy it fine. I am in the sixth A at Howard Kennedy school. Uncle Ross, I hope my letter doesn't reach the wastebasket. I will not answer your riddle this time. I am not very good at them. I am enjoying my vacation fine so far. I go skating nearly every night, but I cannot go now because my friend lost my key. I will be kind to animals and my friends, too. I will leave room for the others. Your niece,
HATTIE MAXWELL.
