

WINS SPECIAL AWARD

HEAD VICTORY GARDENER OF HOWARD KENNEDY SCHOOL WINS AWARD

Special awards were given to the six outstanding Victory Gardeners in the city at the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon last Wednesday. There were eighty-four youngsters present.

Pearl Billingsley, eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Billingsley, 2926 N. 27th Street, Head Victory Gardener of Howard Kennedy School, received the third award of a bronze General Mac Arthur "green thumb" medal, five dollars in cash and a certificate of achievement.

On Friday afternoon, the recipients of these special awards were taken to the World Herald Broadcasting station where they took part in a radio program and on Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. their transcribed program was broadcasted over station KOWH.

Pearl's Victory Garden display won three 1st prizes and one 3rd prize during the summer and fall exhibition.
