On Tuesday, November 8th, beginning at 7:00 P. M., Open House will be held at Howard Kennedy School in observance of National Education Week. If you would like to see just what happens during a typical school day, be sure to attend on this night. This observance is a nation-wide project to enlighten the public on the need for education. The Adult Education Committee, Mrs. Helen Curry, Chairman, will present a Style Review, showing "A stitch in time, saves dimes." This class in sewing is held weekly at Howard Kennedy. We are asking for the cooperation of all parents in this observance.
