

Howard Kennedy Has 726 Student Enrollment

Howard Kennedy is literally bursting out all over. We have the largest enrollment in the history of the school, amounting to 726 students. The staff, largest in our history, numbers 26 and includes 9 new teachers: Mrs. Kathryn G. Byrne, First Grade; Mrs. Emerald K. Mitchell, First Grade; Mrs. Marjorie Vernell, Third Grade; Mrs. Maude Thompson, Fourth Grade; Miss M. Charlotte Bennewitz, Sixth Grade; Mrs. Cecile Forman, Sixth Grade; Mr. Joseph Mosley, who formerly taught Physical Education, Seventh Grade; Mr. Arthur Froog, Speech; and Mr. Robert Rose, Physical Education. Our new Principal is Mrs. Zell Sahn, formerly Principal of Bancroft and Train Schools.

Several new innovations have been introduced by Mrs. Sahn which are certain to improve and enrich the academic experience of the students. These include a Student Council, under the guidance of Mr. Bryant; Seventh Grade; a Hall Patrol and a Playground Patrol, supervised by Mr. Mosley and Miss Bennewitz respectively. These organizations were formed for the express purpose of giving the students an opportunity to share in the responsibility of governing themselves and their school.

The Howard Kennedy P.T.A. got off to a rousing start Monday evening, September 14, at our Friendship Meeting. In each classroom, the teacher and two room mothers were present to greet each visiting parents. (Incidentally, we think we have the finest room mothers and other parents in Omaha.)

After visiting the rooms, we all assembled in the lower hall where Mr. Bryant, Program Chairman, introduced the new teachers and the new P.T.A. Officers, who are: Mr. Fred Dixon, President; Mrs. Mary Parks, Secretary; Mrs. Camille Lewis, Assistant Secretary; and Mrs. Margaret Wright, Treasurer.

Mrs. Sahn briefly outlined plans for the coming year and expressed her pleasure at being Principal of Howard Kennedy School.

Watch for our Paper Sale, September 22, and our School Carnival, date to be announced later!
