

The Pride Of The Masonics

Wilbert Merriweather

When you visit the Masonic Temple, 2414 Ames you will be greeted by a 33 year old native Omahian who has a warm, kind manner in receiving you. The politeness and hospitable carriage of his make-up is not to be confused with timidness. His hobbies are wrestling, boxing, and karate.

He attended Howard Kennedy, Lake and Omaha Technical High School. Wilbert Merriweather of 3508 Patrick Street is the son of Thaddues Merriweather of 4216 Florence Blvd. Wilbert is one of six children. He and his wife Sonja have two sons, Azizi and Daudi. Merriweather has been in a masonic family all of his life. He has spent four years in the United States Marine Corps and lived in Pasadena, California where his employment and military service carried him. He is now working for The Corps of Engineers, here in Omaha.

Merriweather is Worshipful Master of his Lodge, Anchor Lodge No 14; Past High Priest and Prophet of Zaha Temple No. 52 and is presently Chairman of the "Miss Zaha" Pageant Committee. Merriweather and his committee just returned from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where their contestant Maretha Baltimore won first place and will represent Zaha Temple No 52 and Zaha Court No. 72 in Kansas City, Missouri at the Imperial Council, August 20th.

Wilbert is the youngest man ever to manage the 3-5-7 club and has attained all of his Fraternal achievements in less than 5 years. Wilbert we are proud of you. You are someone everybody should know. Wilbert was voted masonic of the Year 1977 by his lodge.

James G. Robinson
Director of Public Relations
Zaha Temple No 52
