

A Loyal American Citizen Sells Home, and Car – Buys Bonds

Mr. Eugene Rayford, who works at the airplane plant, is doing his bit by deeds and not words. He has, in one year's time bought $5,650 in war bonds. When a man sells his home and car and is going to live in a small 3-room apartment during the duration, hats off to a loyal American citizen.

His wife, Lillian, does her bit in many ways to help win the war. She even saves a teaspoon of grease to add to the large can that she turns over to Uncle Sam.

Eugene was born in Omaha, and attended Howard Kennedy School.
